

Kenyon College

Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange

---

Mount Vernon Banner Historic Newspaper 1893

---

8-17-1893

Mount Vernon Democratic Banner August 17, 1893

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digital.kenyon.edu/banner1893>

---

Recommended Citation

"Mount Vernon Democratic Banner August 17, 1893" (1893). Mount Vernon Banner Historic Newspaper 1893. 24.
<https://digital.kenyon.edu/banner1893/24>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. It has been accepted for inclusion in Mount Vernon Banner Historic Newspaper 1893 by an authorized administrator of Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. For more information, please contact noltj@kenyon.edu.

The Banner.

L. HARPER, Editor and Proprietor.
OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE COUNTY.

MOUNT VERNON, OHIO:

THURSDAY MORNING, AUG. 17, 1893.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

For Governor
LAWRENCE T. NEAL,
of Ross.
For Lieutenant Governor
WILLIAM A. TAYLOR, of Franklin.
For Judge of the Supreme Court
JOHN W. SATER, of Darke.
For Attorney General
JOHN P. BAILEY,
of Putnam.
For State Treasurer
B. C. BLACKBURN,
of Cincinnati.
For Member Board of Public Works
LOUIS WILHELM,
of Summit.
For Dairy and Food Commissioner
PATRICK H. MCKINLEY, of Hamilton.

It is needless to say that the BANNER is delighted with the nomination of Hon. Lawrence T. Neal as the Democratic candidate for Governor, and heartily indorses the Platform adopted by the Cincinnati Convention.

REMEMBER the state fair begins on August 28.

Pay your little debts and then plenty of money will go into circulation.

The men who wrecked the Indianapolis National Bank are to be prosecuted.

The press almost unanimously indorses the message of President Cleveland.

OKLAHOMA is making a vigorous movement to be admitted into the sisterhood of States.

GOLD in the U. S. Treasury on the 10th inst. was $3,157,554 above the $100,000,000 reserve.

The Wire Nail Works at Salem, Ohio, resumed operations on Monday, after several weeks idleness.

FIFTY hundred Columbus people attended the World's Fair last week, according to the Press-Post.

CHARLEY FOSTER will probably not go over the State this year exhibiting his wonderful financial wisdom.

The Delaware Brewing and Ice Company has passed into the hands of Leopold H. Holzmueller, as receiver.

COL. GILBERT D. MUNSON is the Republican nominee for Common Pleas Judge in the Muskingum district.

H. L. HOTCHKISS & Co., bankers and brokers of No. 36 Wall street, New York, have assigned, with liabilities of $80,000.

The "rural roosters," as Halsted once called the Democratic editors, did a good deal of crowing in Cincinnati last week.

If people would pay their little debts, and thus keep money in circulation, there would be less talk about "hard times."

In justice to Charley Foster it is proper to say that he was not a partner of Zantz Diggins in his various financial lables.

$20,000,000 in gold are expected in New York from Europe within the next ten days. This will greatly relieve the money pressure.

A BOILER in the Cadwallar Milling Company at Fostoria, exploded on the 8th inst., killing two men and badly injuring three others.

The President's Message, the leading features of which were given in last week's BANNER, have been well received all over the country.

MADENED with jealousy and drink John M. Meister, wealthy baker of Brooklyn, shot and killed his wife and then tried to kill himself.

The bullion in the bank of England has decreased during the past week 2,250,000 pounds. Most of it having gone to the United States.

MR. GLADSTONE, in the House of Commons on the 8th inst., announced that the Government intended to hold an Autumn session of Parliament.

CONGRESS should make some effort to afford relief to the unemployed people throughout the country. No worthy object could engage its attention.

WITH Cleveland in the Presidential chair, and Neal in the gubernatorial chair of Ohio, the people may look for better times and greater prosperity.

The Indianapolis Sentinel says that Larry Neal, the popular money lender, ought to beat McKinley 50,000 votes in Ohio.

EARTHQUAKE shocks continue along the Italian Adriatic coast. The town of Mattina has been partially destroyed and the volcano of Stromboli is in eruption.

ROSS COTNEY well deserves the title of "the mother of Governors." Hon. Lawrence T. Neal will be the fourth Governor who has furnished the State of Ohio.

MANY banks that suspended during the late financial flurry, are preparing to resume, and a more cheerful condition of affairs is visible all over the country.

The Chicago Globe says: If Mr. Neal goes at McKinley in Ohio as he did in the National Convention he will be elected, and McKinley will be as dead as his bill.

The yellow fever prevails at Brunswick, Ga., and several cases of cholera are reported on board the emigrant ship, Karamania, at quarantine, near New York.

THERE is an extraordinary demand for currency in New York, and sharpers and usurers are taking advantage of it by charging enormous rates of interest for small loans.

SPEAKING of the recent Cincinnati Convention, the New York Times says: "The platform adopted was brief, and a model of discreet utterance." That expresses it exactly.

The Republicans of the 28th-29th Senatorial district, in Convention at Ashland on the 11th, nominated George Ely for State Senator by acclamation. The district is largely Republican.

A SEVERE earthquake shock was felt at Santa Rosa, Cal., on the 9th. Considerable damage was done in the way of falling chimneys, broken windows, &c. The court house was badly damaged.

All the prisoners in the Hancock county jail, at Findlay, made their escape last Wednesday night, by making a hole through the heavy wall with furnished aid by parties on the outside.

The coroner's jury at Mansfield has decided that the death of John Englehart, the Democratic nominee for Sheriff, at the Union depot, as notified in last week's BANNER, was accidental and not the result of murder.

The fact that the President left suddenly for Buzzards Bay on Friday, gave rise to all sorts of wild reports among the politicians. A Washington dispatch says: The simple truth is that a domestic event in Mr. Cleveland's family will require him to be at the side of his wife within six or seven days, and it is scarcely decent politics to drag such a delicate matter into a rough and tumble political fight. The President stands by his message and expects to win in his struggle to give the country relief and save it from general impending ruin. Nothing could induce him to leave Washington at such a supreme crisis but an event touching his tenderest and most sacred personal responsibilities.

The campaign in Ohio this year will be one of unusual interest, in which reason and argument will take the place of noise, nonsense and clap-trap. The candidates of the two great parties for Governor are gentlemen of the highest character, personally and politically, and they will not doubt be willing to meet each other in joint debate, to discuss the exciting political questions of the day. The Democracy have no fears as to the result. Hon. L. T. Neal is one of the ablest debaters in the country, and will more than a match for his opponent in an intellectual combat.

AFTER a long and exciting chase the desperate robber and highwayman who assaulted and robbed W. G. Pollock, a traveling salesman for the large diamond house of W. L. Pollock & Co., of New York, was run down and captured by Pinkerton's detectives last Wednesday. The thief gave his name as Frank Scheffelt, but is also known under sundry aliases, such as James Burke, Kid Burke, Frank Wilson, Ed. McCoy, &c. The arrest took place at Leadville, Col. It is believed that the stolen diamonds will be recovered.

THERE is not a more solid town, of its size in the whole country than Mt. Vernon. During the recent financial flurry that prevailed in many places, especially in the West, causing banks to suspend and business houses to close, Mt. Vernon remained unshaken—her banks unscathed, and her merchants unmoved. The truth is the "financial crisis" was nothing but a huge scare, but our people did not scare worth a cent. That a season of prosperity is approaching we have every reason to believe.

An immense number of editors were in attendance at the recent Democratic State Convention in Cincinnati, and they all spoke highly of the cordial welcome and the generous, whole-souled entertainments that were given them by the press of Cincinnati and the citizens generally. Fifty-nine representatives of daily papers and 142 representatives of weekly papers, "took in" the great Convention and the beautiful Queen City.

THE Mohammedans and Hindoos at Bombay became involved in a dispute on Friday, which terminated in a bloody riot, and the serious injury of a great many persons. The Mohammedans were observing one of the festivals commanded by the Koran, while the Hindoos were celebrating a day set apart for religious purposes. The religious feelings were hot on both sides and hence the conflict.

The following gentlemen have been selected as members of the Democratic State Executive Committee: Lewis P. Ohlinger, of Wayne; Lewis G. Barnard, of Hamilton; John H. Farley, of Cuyahoga; L. C. Cole, of Wood; Henry Bohi, of Washington; Theodore Leonard, of Franklin. The Chairman, Vice Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer are to be selected hereafter.

The Pittsburgh Dispatch interviewed a large number of politicians, manufacturers and labor leaders in that city in regard to their opinion about the President's message, and the reply was generally favorable, although some believed that the President should have suggested some remedy for our financial troubles besides the repeal of the Sherman silver purchasing act.

The burns owned by David Dewitt, William Lantz and Abraham Shaw were burned near Lima, Aug. 9. The fire was started in Dewitt's barn by children playing with matches. A 4-year-old daughter of Dewitt was caught in the fire, and the mother, in desperate haste, attempted to rescue it, it was fatally burned.

Hox, L. T. Neal, the Democratic nominee for Governor, has received letters and telegrams from prominent Democrats in all parts of the country, congratulating him upon his nomination and confidently predicting his triumphant election, as the representative of Tariff Reform in opposition to Tariff Taxation.

The depositors in the Akron Savings Bank and the Citizens' Savings and Loan Association of Akron held meetings last week and unanimously agreed that no run should be made upon those institutions. This action, it is said, was brought about by good feeling and restored confidence among the people of Akron.

The Marshal of Corydon, Indiana, with a strong police force, is out on a chase for the Conrad boys, who shot a number of men who went to Lynch them, as mentioned in last week's BANNER. If they are caught they will probably be taken from the Marshal and hanged.

The Republican story that Hon. L. T. Neal, the Democratic nominee, is an enemy of President Cleveland, is wholly destitute of truth. Read Mr. Neal's speech, printed on the first page of this week's BANNER, on his way to know what he thinks about Grover Cleveland.

The official cholera report from Naples says that seven new cases and eight deaths have been recorded in the twenty-four hours ending at noon Saturday. An outbreak of cholera is reported in the Province of Campobasso, South of the Province of Naples.

Give the country plenty of gold, plenty of silver and plenty of greenbacks, and make them of equal commercial value, and then, with an honest Democratic Administration, the people will be blessed with peace, plenty and prosperity.

Get all the silver dollars you honestly can, and confidently assure you that you will have no trouble in passing them for 100 cents each to every business man in Mt. Vernon. The BANNER will be particularly well pleased to receive them at par.

While the people of the North have been suffering from drought during the past two months, New Mexico has been visited with deluging rains, which flooded the country, washing away railroad tracks and putting a stop to travel.

MANY banks of New York City have decided to raise the rates of discount on the renewal of commercial paper and time loans to country banks to ten and twelve per cent. The scarcity of currency continues.

The Columbus Journal has been justly gratified in the nomination of Larry Neal for Governor. In a few months the Journal will have the privilege of writing his name "Governor Neal."

LOW TARIFF NEAL

Called to Lead the Democracy of Ohio This Year.

He is Tendered a Unanimous Nomination for Governor

By One of the Largest and Grandest Conventions

That Ever Assembled in the State—A Magnificent Platform of Sound Principles—Mr. Neal's Reception at Home.

It was one of the grandest political gatherings ever assembled in the state of Ohio and the beautiful Queen City of the West fairly outdid herself in the magnificent entertainment provided for the several thousand delegates and visitors from Ohio and adjoining States, who flocked to the city to sing the praises of Democracy.

When the representatives of the grand old party assembled in Music Hall, Thursday morning, the interior presented a most enchanting and artistic appearance and the delegates found themselves in a paradise of flags and bunting, tropical plants and rare exotics with pictures by the hundred of men famous in the civil and military life of the nation. Across the rear of the stage, hiding the great organ was a flag fifty feet in length, surmounted by a portrait of Thomas Jefferson and supported by Grover Cleveland and Vice President Stevenson.

The vast assemblage was called to order by Chairman Cates of state central committee, which was followed by prayer by Rev. Ely, of the Episcopal church.

Temporary Chairman Gilbert H. Barger, of Columbus, was called to the chair, and was enthusiastically received. Walter H. Thieme, of Cleveland, was selected as temporary secretary, after which a cablegram of greeting was read from Consul James E. Neal, at Liverpool. It was received with great applause.

Mr. Barger, after being introduced, made one of his characteristic Democratic speeches. The usual reports of the committees on credentials and rules and order were adopted, after which the temporary organization was made permanent.

The following committeemen were selected at the Fourteenth District caucus: State Central Committeemen—J. W. Lea, of Huron county.

Vice President—W. B. Fisher, of Lorain county.

Credentials—W. M. Harper, of Knox county.

Order of Business—W. G. Beebe, of Morrow county.

Organization—H. A. Mykranitz, of Ashtabula county.

Assistant Secretary—C. N. Gaumer, of Richland county.

Resolutions—James P. Seward, of Richland county.

Hon. John A. McMahon, chairman of the committee on resolutions, presented the following report which was unanimously adopted:

The Platform on Which the Ohio Democracy Stands.

1. We hereby approve the platform of the Democratic party adopted by the National Convention at Chicago, and especially those portions of it referring to the tariff and to currency legislation. We congratulate the country upon the untimely prospect of measures of relief as outlined by the President's late message to Congress, and we have confidence that the Democratic Congress will devise laws to furnish such relief.

2. The financial situation is the unfortunate legacy of Republican Administration. It is the result of the McKinley tariff, the Sherman silver law, extravagance of the Republican party, and the reckless and unscrupulous and fostering of trusts and corrupt combinations by that party, all combining to shake credit, to create distrust in the currency of the country and to paralyze its business.

3. We recommend that National banks may be permitted to issue their currency notes to an amount equal to the par value of the United States bonds, which they may deposit with the Treasurer of the United States, and that the value of currency may be immediately increased.

The interest of every true soldier and patriot demands that the pension roll should be made and preserved as a roll of honor. We believe in a just and liberal recognition of the claims of the veterans, and we grant them all the patriotism could ask, all that National gratitude would demand. But the granting of pensions on fraudulent claims for partisan purposes, and the resort to decisions in contravention of law, as practiced under the last Administration, is a disgrace to the country, and we demand that the pension roll be maintained as a roll of honor, and that the pensioner be treated as a soldier who has sacrificed his life for his country.

The Democratic party pledges itself to extricate the great commercial interests in this country from their present distressed condition.

The country has abiding faith in the integrity, patriotism and exalted courage of President Cleveland. True to the people and watchful of their interests, he will not permit any unscrupulous methods in the conduct of public affairs and secure to every section of the country the blessing of good government.

THE GUBERNATORIAL NOMINATION.

Hon. J. P. Seward, of Mansfield, in an able and eloquent speech, nominated Lawrence T. Neal, of Ross county, for Governor. The names of Col. Wm. A. Taylor, of Columbus; Hon. Charles W. Baker, of Cincinnati; Hon. John H. Clark, of Youngstown, and Hon. John J. Lantz, of Columbus, were also presented.

LARRY NEAL SELECTED.

Knox county cast her seven votes for Neal. When the roll-call was completed a great shout went up, as it was known that Neal had a majority of all votes cast. Many counties got into the "swing" by changing their votes to Neal. Before the announcement of the vote the rules were suspended and Neal was nominated by acclamation. Had the vote as first cast been announced, it would have shown a small majority for Neal over all others combined. The nomination was greeted with terrific applause.

A committee was appointed and sent after Mr. Neal, who shortly appeared and was introduced amidst great applause. He made a magnificent speech of acceptance which was frequently interrupted by outbreaks of applause.

MR. NEAL ACCEPTS.

Upon being presented to the Convention as the next Governor of Ohio, Mr. Neal said:

"MR. CHAIRMAN AND GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION—The office of Governor is surely worthy of the ambition of any man. The nomination for this office by the representatives of the illustrious Democracy of this grand State, under any circumstances, be an honor that I should appreciate most deeply, and when such a nomination adds to the honor which it ordinarily confers that of leadership of our party in this State in a campaign destined to become national in its character, and then given without personal solicitation by me, there is nothing that could appeal more strongly to my sense of feeling, or awaken within my mind a greater thankfulness. [Applause.] My personal desire was that you should have selected someone other than myself to lead you in this contest, but now your will is my will. [Applause.] I distrust my ability to assume the responsibility to fully discharge the duties which this nomination must necessarily impose upon me, but while I accept it in the spirit in which it is given, I am determined that the fight shall only end when your victorious shout shall proclaim [applause] that the battle for the redemption of this State, which this nomination has made free-free in the skillful guidance and direction of the trusted hero and statesman, Grover Cleveland, and the noble and patriotic Sherman law [applause]; free from the oppression and slavery of a system of currency which is a curse to the Republic, and a principle of taxation without representation, for the overthrow of which our fathers rebelled and fought, and achieved independence for themselves and for us. [Applause.] Ohio has become a final battle-ground for the Democracy, McKinley and the Republican party, with a desperation born of despair, have appealed from the voters of the whole country to the voters of Ohio, and this issue. Their appeal will be in vain. McKinley and McKinleyism are alike doomed to irretrievable defeat. This is an assured fact. It is as certain as anything can be that has yet transpired. The people of Ohio will sustain the platform of the Democracy, and will forever establish as a principle, not under any circumstances to be abandoned, that public necessity alone must mark and prescribe the constitutional limits for the imposition of taxes upon the citizen or his property by either State or Federal Government." [Applause.]

COL. TAYLOR FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR.

Col. W. A. Taylor, of Columbus, was nominated by acclamation for Lieutenant Governor, amidst wild cheers. He accepted the honor in one of his characteristic speeches that aroused the enthusiasm to its highest pitch.

The vote on Supreme Judge was then taken and Knox county cast her seven votes for Hon. Samuel M. Hunter of Newark. Hon. John W. Sater, of Darke county, was nominated on the first ballot. The result was Sater 454; Hunter 340; Hild 14. On motion of Hon. E. M. Brister, of Licking, it was made unanimous.

THE DISCUSSIONS IN CONGRESS.

During the past week, on the proposed repeal of the Sherman Silver Purchasing law, have been earnest and exciting. Various propositions have been submitted by the Silverites and the Goldocrats, but nothing, as yet, that looks like being agreed upon. Indeed, opinions are so various and the discussions so discordant that it seems unlikely that a solution of the question will be reached either speedily or satisfactorily.

The dwelling house of Jacob Herold, on Colfax street, Cleveland, was destroyed by fire on Thursday last, and his five-year-old son perished in the flames.

THE DISCUSSIONS IN CONGRESS.

During the past week, on the proposed repeal of the Sherman Silver Purchasing law, have been earnest and exciting. Various propositions have been submitted by the Silverites and the Goldocrats, but nothing, as yet, that looks like being agreed upon. Indeed, opinions are so various and the discussions so discordant that it seems unlikely that a solution of the question will be reached either speedily or satisfactorily.

The dwelling house of Jacob Herold, on Colfax street, Cleveland, was destroyed by fire on Thursday last, and his five-year-old son perished in the flames.

THE DISCUSSIONS IN CONGRESS.

During the past week, on the proposed repeal of the Sherman Silver Purchasing law, have been earnest and exciting. Various propositions have been submitted by the Silverites and the Goldocrats, but nothing, as yet, that looks like being agreed upon. Indeed, opinions are so various and the discussions so discordant that it seems unlikely that a solution of the question will be reached either speedily or satisfactorily.

The dwelling house of Jacob Herold, on Colfax street, Cleveland, was destroyed by fire on Thursday last, and his five-year-old son perished in the flames.

THE DISCUSSIONS IN CONGRESS.

During the past week, on the proposed repeal of the Sherman Silver Purchasing law, have been earnest and exciting. Various propositions have been submitted by the Silverites and the Goldocrats, but nothing, as yet, that looks like being agreed upon. Indeed, opinions are so various and the discussions so discordant that it seems unlikely that a solution of the question will be reached either speedily or satisfactorily.

The dwelling house of Jacob Herold, on Colfax street, Cleveland, was destroyed by fire on Thursday last, and his five-year-old son perished in the flames.

THE DISCUSSIONS IN CONGRESS.

During the past week, on the proposed repeal of the Sherman Silver Purchasing law, have been earnest and exciting. Various propositions have been submitted by the Silverites and the Goldocrats, but nothing, as yet, that looks like being agreed upon. Indeed, opinions are so various and the discussions so discordant that it seems unlikely that a solution of the question will be reached either speedily or satisfactorily.

The dwelling house of Jacob Herold, on Colfax street, Cleveland, was destroyed by fire on Thursday last, and his five-year-old son perished in the flames.

THE DISCUSSIONS IN CONGRESS.

During the past week, on the proposed repeal of the Sherman Silver Purchasing law, have been earnest and exciting. Various propositions have been submitted by the Silverites and the Goldocrats, but nothing, as yet, that looks like being agreed upon. Indeed, opinions are so various and the discussions so discordant that it seems unlikely that a solution of the question will be reached either speedily or satisfactorily.

The dwelling house of Jacob Herold, on Colfax street, Cleveland, was destroyed by fire on Thursday last, and his five-year-old son perished in the flames.

THE DISCUSSIONS IN CONGRESS.

During the past week, on the proposed repeal of the Sherman Silver Purchasing law, have been earnest and exciting. Various propositions have been submitted by the Silverites and the Goldocrats, but nothing, as yet, that looks like being agreed upon. Indeed, opinions are so various and the discussions so discordant that it seems unlikely that a solution of the question will be reached either speedily or satisfactorily.

The dwelling house of Jacob Herold, on Colfax street, Cleveland, was destroyed by fire on Thursday last, and his five-year-old son perished in the flames.

THE DISCUSSIONS IN CONGRESS.

During the past week, on the proposed repeal of the Sherman Silver Purchasing law, have been earnest and exciting. Various propositions have been submitted by the Silverites and the Goldocrats, but nothing, as yet, that looks like being agreed upon. Indeed, opinions are so various and the discussions so discordant that it seems unlikely that a solution of the question will be reached either speedily or satisfactorily.

The dwelling house of Jacob Herold, on Colfax street, Cleveland, was destroyed by fire on Thursday last, and his five-year-old son perished in the flames.

THE DISCUSSIONS IN CONGRESS.

During the past week, on the proposed repeal of the Sherman Silver Purchasing law, have been earnest and exciting. Various propositions have been submitted by the Silverites and the Goldocrats, but nothing, as yet, that looks like being agreed upon. Indeed, opinions are so various and the discussions so discordant that it seems unlikely that a solution of the question will be reached either speedily or satisfactorily.

The dwelling house of Jacob Herold, on Colfax street, Cleveland, was destroyed by fire on Thursday last, and his five-year-old son perished in the flames.

THE DISCUSSIONS IN CONGRESS.

During the past week, on the proposed repeal of the Sherman Silver Purchasing law, have been earnest and exciting. Various propositions have been submitted by the Silverites and the Goldocrats, but nothing, as yet, that looks like being agreed upon. Indeed, opinions are so various and the discussions so discordant that it seems unlikely that a solution of the question will be reached either speedily or satisfactorily.

The dwelling house of Jacob Herold, on Colfax street, Cleveland, was destroyed by fire on Thursday last, and his five-year-old son perished in the flames.

THE DISCUSSIONS IN CONGRESS.

During the past week, on the proposed repeal of the Sherman Silver Purchasing law, have been earnest and exciting. Various propositions have been submitted by the Silverites and the Goldocrats, but nothing, as yet, that looks like being agreed upon. Indeed, opinions are so various and the discussions so discordant that it seems unlikely that a solution of the question will be reached either speedily or satisfactorily.

The dwelling house of Jacob Herold, on Colfax street, Cleveland, was destroyed by fire on Thursday last, and his five-year-old son perished in the flames.

THE DISCUSSIONS IN CONGRESS.

During the past week, on the proposed repeal of the Sherman Silver Purchasing law, have been earnest and exciting. Various propositions have been submitted by the Silverites and the Goldocrats, but nothing, as yet, that looks like being agreed upon. Indeed, opinions are so various and the discussions so discordant that it seems unlikely that a solution of the question will be reached either speedily or satisfactorily.

The dwelling house of Jacob Herold, on Colfax street, Cleveland, was destroyed by fire on Thursday last, and his five-year-old son perished in the flames.

THE DISCUSSIONS IN CONGRESS.

During the past week, on the proposed repeal of the Sherman Silver Purchasing law, have been earnest and exciting. Various propositions have been submitted by the Silverites and the Goldocrats, but nothing, as yet, that looks like being agreed upon. Indeed, opinions are so various and the discussions so discordant that it seems unlikely that a solution of the question will be reached either speedily or satisfactorily.

The dwelling house of Jacob Herold, on Colfax street, Cleveland, was destroyed by fire on Thursday last, and his five-year-old son perished in the flames.

THE DISCUSSIONS IN CONGRESS.

During the past week, on the proposed repeal of the Sherman Silver Purchasing law, have been earnest and exciting. Various propositions have been submitted by the Silverites and the Goldocrats, but nothing, as yet, that looks like being agreed upon. Indeed, opinions are so various and the discussions so discordant that it seems unlikely that a solution of the question will be reached either speedily or satisfactorily.

The dwelling house of Jacob Herold, on Colfax street, Cleveland, was destroyed by fire on Thursday last, and his five-year-old son perished in the flames.

THE DISCUSSIONS IN CONGRESS.

During the past week, on the proposed repeal of the Sherman Silver Purchasing law, have been earnest and exciting. Various propositions have been submitted by the Silverites and the Goldocrats, but nothing, as yet, that looks like being agreed upon. Indeed, opinions are so various and the discussions so discordant that it seems unlikely that a solution of the question will be reached either speedily or satisfactorily.

The dwelling house of Jacob Herold, on Colfax street, Cleveland, was destroyed by fire on Thursday last, and his five-year-old son perished in the flames.

THE DISCUSSIONS IN CONGRESS.

During the past week, on the proposed repeal of the Sherman Silver Purchasing law, have been earnest and exciting. Various propositions have been submitted by the Silverites and the Goldocrats, but nothing, as yet, that looks like being agreed upon. Indeed, opinions are so various and the discussions so discordant that it seems unlikely that a solution of the question will be reached either speedily or satisfactorily.

The dwelling house of Jacob Herold, on Colfax street, Cleveland, was destroyed by fire on Thursday last, and his five-year-old son perished in the flames.

THE DISCUSSIONS IN CONGRESS.

During the past week, on the proposed repeal of the Sherman Silver Purchasing law, have been earnest and exciting. Various propositions have been submitted by the Silverites and the Goldocrats, but nothing, as yet, that looks like being agreed upon. Indeed, opinions are so various and the discussions so discordant that it seems unlikely that a solution of the question will be reached either speedily or satisfactorily.

The dwelling house of Jacob Herold, on Colfax street, Cleveland, was destroyed by fire on Thursday last, and his five-year-old son perished in the flames.

THE DISCUSSIONS IN CONGRESS.

During the past week, on the proposed repeal of the Sherman Silver Purchasing law, have been earnest and exciting. Various propositions have been submitted by the Silverites and the Goldocrats, but nothing, as yet, that looks like being agreed upon. Indeed, opinions are so various and the discussions so discordant that it seems unlikely that a solution of the question will be reached either speedily or satisfactorily.

The dwelling house of Jacob Herold, on Colfax street, Cleveland, was destroyed by fire on Thursday last, and his five-year-old son perished in the flames.

THE DISCUSSIONS IN CONGRESS.

During the past week, on the proposed repeal of the Sherman Silver Purchasing law, have been earnest and exciting. Various propositions have been submitted by the Silverites and the Goldocrats, but nothing, as yet, that looks like being agreed upon. Indeed, opinions are so various and the discussions so discordant that it seems unlikely that a solution of the question will be reached either speedily or satisfactorily.

HORRIBLE FIRE IN CHICAGO

The Senate Hotel Destroyed,

Seven Burned Bodies Recovered From the Ruins and Nineteen Persons Seriously Injured.

Early on Monday morning a fire broke out in the Senate Hotel, a three-story building on Madison street, near 6th Avenue, Chicago, and in a very brief period of time the structure was a heap of ruins. There being no fire escape on the building, most of the guests, who were still in bed, were in a perilous situation. Seven were either killed in jumping from the windows, or were burned alive; while nearly a score of others were severely burned or injured. The fire was started from an overturned stair lamp. The scene was altogether a fearful one. The guests were mostly World's Fair visitors and their shrieks were heart-rending as the flames spread around them.

OTHER FIRES.

MILFORD CENTRE, Union county, Ohio, had a great fire, Friday morning, which destroyed the business portion of the town, including the Richter Hotel, J. H. Dean's hardware store, M. J. Flaherty's clothing store, H. W. Johnson's shoe shop, the Oxford and Red Men's building, the residence of R. Richter, the dry-goods store of W. M. Snodgrass, the drug store of George Lyons, the grocery of George Rice & Bros., the machine shop of B. Keyes, and other buildings. Loss estimated at $50,000. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

At the fire town of New Richmond, on the Ohio river, was destroyed by fire at an early hour on Monday morning. Cincinnati was called upon and sent fire engines to put out the fire. The total loss is about $20,000. Among the buildings destroyed was the First National Bank, the Springer House

